

FAMILY ELECTRIC RATE ASSISTANCE (FERA)

Families whose household income slightly exceeds the CARE program limits may qualify to enroll in FERA, which bills some electricity use at a lower rate. The household income eligibility requirements are as follows:

- 3 members.....$40,321 - $50,400
- 4 members.....$48,601 - $60,750
- 5 members.....$56,881 - $71,100
- 6 members.....$65,161 - $81,450
- 7 members.....$73,461 - $91,825
- 8 members.....$81,781 - $102,225
- Each additional.....$8,321 - $10,050

(income limits effective June 1, 2016 through May 31, 2017)

The FERA program is available through Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Southern California Edison, and San Diego Gas and Electric Company. For more information or to enroll, contact your utility company.

MEDICAL BASELINE

Consumers on Medical Baseline are billed for natural gas and electricity use at their utility company's lowest residential rate. This program is for consumers who rely on life support equipment, or those who have life threatening illnesses or compromised immune systems. The program is not income-based.

The Medical Baseline program is available through Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Southern California Edison, San Diego Gas and Electric Company, and Southern California Gas Company. For more information or to enroll, contact your utility company.

WATER PROGRAMS

The CPUC regulates privately owned water companies, which may provide specific assistance programs that are unique to each company's service territory and have varying income limits. Check with your water utility to find out about consumer programs. For information on income eligibility limits and for a list of water companies offering such programs, please visit www.cpuc.ca.gov/PUC/Water/wateralternativerates.htm.

ASSISTANCE PAYING YOUR BILLS

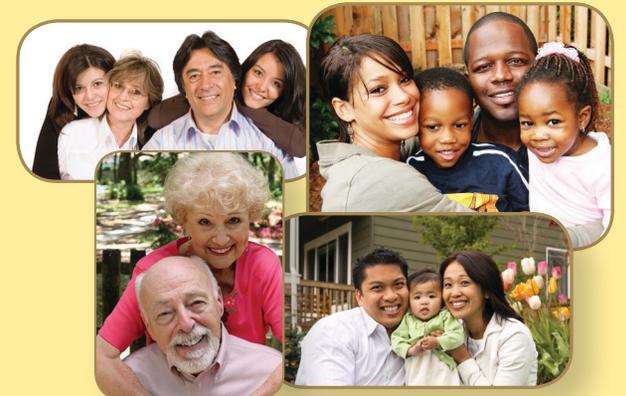

Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Southern California Edison, San Diego Gas and Electric Company, and Southern California Gas Company may have payment assistance programs and payment plans that can help you manage your bills. Contact the utility directly, using the customer service phone number printed on the front page of your bill. If you need help negotiating a payment plan, contact the CPUC's Consumer Affairs office at 1-800-649-7570. Water utility customers may qualify for payment plans when shut-off of water service is imminent. In addition, many larger water companies provide payment plans for military families. Contact your water company for more information.
